11. Detailed report of the event: On March 30, 2022, the department of accounting and finance's students' forum commemorated Programme on Gender Sensitization by holding lectures on the theme of “Women Empowerment through Gender Sensitization”. The programme began about 10:00 a.m. and lasted till 11:40 a.m. Dr. Radhika Arvind, addressed the girls in Ganga block during this lecture segment. She spoke about women empowerment and how girls to be bold when they face any problems. Also the students raised questions related to PCOS, which is a big issue that every girl in this generation encounters. She recommended drinking tonnes of water, eating watery fruits and vegetables, eating a nutritious diet, and using drugs to treat PCOS.
12. Outcome of the program:

The entire day was very useful to the whole department. The seminar session and aided the student to realize how important a girl to this society and also understood how to stay healthy in our life. Overall, the program was a grand success.

10. Detailed Report of the Programme :

Day 1 Morning Session:

The session started with a warm welcome address by the MC of the session, S. Nivetha. Ms. Vasanthakumari Jayaraman took over the session by briefing about harassment & took us into the topic POSH – Prevention of Sexual Harassment at workplace. She then went into interacting with the students questioning us on harassment & then made us to understand that any kind of discrimination, making one uncomfortable, bullying is all a part of harassment. She also added that equality should be made for everyone. She added that POSH Act Benefits everyone legally, culturally, teamwork & spiritually.

In the End, S. Nivetha delivered the vote of thanks.

DAY 2 Evening Session

The session started with the welcome address delivered by Vaishnavi, Rakesh, Santhosh, Barath and Harini Trisha of 2nd MBA. This address was predominantly about the achievements of all the speakers given by each student respectively. The moderator for the session was Ms. Raghavi. The session started with each speaker's perception of gender justice and all the speakers put forth their insightful thoughts of their perception or their understanding of the topic. The discussion further moved to the status of women in each industry mainly a male dominated industry like manufacturing sectors etc. All speakers contributed equally about their experiences in their respective fields. Furthermore, aspects of how more women candidates can be selected into the organisation and how some gender stereotypical issues have been broken by the speakers and how they have addressed and overcome such issues in their own organisations. The speakers also indulged about the role of women in the economy and how they balance both household and their contribution to the economy simultaneously. All speakers provided their valuable insights, experiences and their perspectives on such a deep topic, being gender justice. Ms.Raghavi concluded the discussion by stating inspiring examples about women around the world and gave a summary about inclusivity and gender justice. We moved to the interaction segment and Dr. U. Amalleshwari also engaged and contributed some valuable thoughts of her own. The session was ended with a Vote of Thanks delivered by Shakthivel of 2nd MBA, followed by a group picture to reminisce the occasion and wonderful thoughts put forward by the speakers of the session. The session ended by vote of thanks given by Sakthivel.

DAY 3 Evening Session

The session started with the warm welcome given Soundarya V J followed by Unnamalai Swetha gave the brief introduction about the guest speaker Ms.VIJAYALAKSHMI DEVARAJAN, Assistant Vice President-UNITED TECHNO. Then session was handed over to the guest speaker. She explained the women's growth in their career and explained the struggles faced by women. She gave statistic research on which women's are shining and showed where women's are lacking too. She also shared her personal story and proved women's growth in their career is not a rocket science. She also explained women independence depends on their career and asked not to stop what we have and asked to strive to reach star. She also strongly said motivation is always comes within us not by others. Then students asked questions and the session was interactive.

The session ended by vote of thanks given by EshwaPachivel.

DAY 4 Evening Session

The event started with the welcome note from Swetha of 1st year MBA welcoming Rekha Gowda who is motivational speaker who inspired a lot of people in her life time. She said that men should never forget that they are not possible without women and women should be encouraged to come out of their comfort zones. But she believes that a country will attain prosperity only when it accessible to everyone and everywhere then only India really gets prosperous. That one thing that drives her a lot is her parent's dedication towards her that they never expect anything from her and proving other people that they are wrong these two factors motivates her a lot. Then we had our second guest Ms. Jyothi kalai who sang few songs and played the violin for us.

The session ended by vote of thanks given by MK. Surya

Day 5 Evening Session

The session started with a warm welcome address by the MC of the session, Vaishnavi

The session was taken over by Ms. RaghaviSenthilkumar talking about entrepreneurship and virtual world and how it has become easy to connect with each other during the pandemic. Ms. Veena spoke about her Naturals Beauty Salon that was into the hospitality type of business and the journey for her business growth. She then started talking about her career path and how she was personally encouraged to start her own business which was a Salon, that started as a small seed that could provide a wide range of services with better hygiene and affordable prices for everyone that later grew into a big business. The closing remarks Ms. Veena was "Learning never ends", she encouraged the students to keep learning as she believes learning is continuous and the more you learn, the more you learn. Ms. Raghavi ended the valedictory by talking about how the women empowerment sessions were important and how they help us transform in better ways.

At the end, Vaishnavi K delivered the vote of thanks and the session was completed successfully.

REPORT:

Pratibha Sangam , PG & Research Department of Commerce organized a intra department talent hunt program “IVAL” –“Women’s Day Celebration” on the occasion of Women’s Day on 8th and 9th March 2022. The event kick started with “Tamil thaa vaazhthu” and the college prayer followed by Welcome address by Dr.Haridayal Sharma, Assistant Professor, Department of Commerce, Shift I. During his welcome address, Dr.Haridayal Sharma made a special mention about all the events that were successfully organized under the banner of Pratibha Sangam. This was followed by special address and words of Wisdom by the Head of Department of Commerce, Shift I, Dr J.Jayasankar. Sir motivated the students to take up challenges, to develop their general and special competences in order to achieve greater heights in studies as well as career. He also appreciated the students for having organized the programme and conducting the same in much systematized manner. Various competitions were organized for the students of 1st, 2nd and 3rd year UG. Competitions like Creative Writing (Tamil and English), Solo Singing, Drawing, Meme creating and Photography were individual events and Debate (English and Tamil), Quiz and Rangoli were group events. Most of these competitions were conducted based on various themes related to Women’s Day. More than 90 students enthusiastically participated and won prizes.

The detailed description of the events are given below

1. Artistic Writing

An event where students showed their creativity through essays, poems and story writing in english. They were given the topic “Women in My Life” and were asked to submit their work within the given time of 60 minutes . The Judge for the event was Dr. Prasanna, Assistant Professor from Department of English of our institution.

2. Sollodu Vilayadu

An event where students showed their creativity through essays, poems and story writing in Tamil. They were given the topic “பெண்ணுக்கு மரியாதை” and were asked to submit their creative work within the given time of 60 minutes. The Judge for the event was Dr. Chellappilai, Assistant Professor from Tamil department of our college.

3. Varnam

In this era, the more visually appealing it is, the wider the reach it gets. The students showcased the talents by their beautiful drawings on the topic-“Women Empowerment”. The Judge for the event was Dr.Arun, Head of the Department of BA Journalism.

4. Vocals.

Music is a heart to heart communication. 12 students participated in the event, mesmerizing everyone with their wonderful singing and 6 of them were selected for the final which was held at the Dwaraka Auditorium. Both the rounds were judged by Mr.Vikram, Assistant Professor, Department of Commerce (Shift-II).

11. Detailed Report of the Programme HETOO
"Its Time To Talk About Our Men"

On the 6th of December 2022, the Visual Communication department of Dg Vaishnav college organised a campaign that aims towards raising awareness on the sexual abuse faced by men in today's world. This was done by organising 3 events in order to spread this message to a wide range of public. The first event was a PSA short film competition where students from various colleges competed to win the grand prize. The second event conducted was a street play which took place on the 9th of december street play inside the Dg Vaishnav college campus. This event was conducted to spread the message among the staff and students of the college. The third and final event held was a ceremony on the 13th of december 11:00am in the Dg Vaishnav college SRG auditorium. Leading Fashion choreographer Mr. Karun Raman, Kalaimamani Dr. Jaguar Thangam and Indian film producer Ravinder chandrasekar were invited to attend the event as chief guests. The chief guests were also invited to the podium to address the audience. Mr.Karun Raman spoke about his past experiences of sexual abuse and the suffering he had to face all through his life to reach this stage. Dr. Jaguar Thangam spoke about his career in the film industry and entertained the crowd. Mr. Ravinder chandrasekar spoke about the law system with regard to male sexual abuse. The promo video that was made by the Videography team was released on the big screen to the crowd. The theatre play was conducted once again on the stage for the audience to enlighten them with the message.
